the NVC Chorale 2015 - '16 Season

Dear Friends and Patrons of the Arts:

This year marks the 40th season of our Chorale. It is with great pleasure that we present a rich and varied program for you this season. In addition to our scheduled concerts, our Outreach Program continues to serve the community by singing in area nursing homes.

We continue to present our concerts in the marvelous acoustics of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, and sincerely appreciate the ongoing support of the pastors, people, and staff of St. Mark's. Each of this season's concerts will include the participation of the NVCC-Annandale Chorale, made up of music majors and other students who enjoy the art of singing. I hope you will enjoy hearing these young, enthusiastic singers.

This looks to be an exciting season. In November, we will join the NOVA-Annandale Symphony Orchestra at Schlesinger Concert Hall for Randall Thompson's "The Testament of Freedom." We'll then move to St. Mark's for our own holiday concert (with modern seasonal works followed by our traditional carol sing-along), in December. Our two other programs will take place in the spring: one will be an all-Mozart evening featuring the "Requiem," with vocal soloists and orchestra; while the last concert, our annual Broadway and Pops concert, will include a dessert spread following the concert.

I invite you to become a Season Ticket holder, and to also look into the many additional benefits available to you as a Friend of the Chorale. With your support, we can continue to bring exciting concerts to Northern Virginia. We follow a simple formula:

"Great choral music + very talented, well-rehearsed singers and instrumentalists = a memorable concert for our deserving community audience!"

The glories of beautiful music brings us together to celebrate, to remember, and to enchant! I look forward to seeing you at our concerts this season, and thank you for your continued support!
