The NV Chorale Performing Season

The NVC's 45th Season's Letter from the Artistic Director
2020-2021 Season

Dear Friends and Patrons of the Arts:

This year marks the 45th Season of our Chorale. As we are all experiencing great difficulties during this unprecedented time, I pray that each of you and your families are staying safe and well.

In writing this letter, I must inform you that due to the current status of the Coronavirus pandemic, it is with much regret that The Northern Virginia Chorale cannot rehearse or perform at this time. It is my hope the Chorale can perform again in the spring 2021, if there are major improvements regarding the pandemic, specifically a viable vaccine.

In the interim, please take a moment to review our website and listen to some of our music from past performances on our audio listening page, at http://www.northernvirginiachorale.org.

When the Chorale is able to perform again, we will present an all-American program entitled, "American Landscapes" which will feature a variety of musical selections from the folk, spirituals, classical and pop genres. This concert will take place at St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Springfield. While we are unable to rehearse or present concerts at this time, we wish to extend our sincere appreciation for the continued support of the pastors, members, and staff at St. Mark's.

I invite you to peruse the many additional benefits available to you at our various levels of donorship listed on our website, under our new, Partners in the Arts section. With your support, we can continue to bring exciting concerts to the Northern Virginia community! Thank you for your continued patronage and support!

We follow a simple formula:

Great choral music + very talented, well-rehearsed singers and instrumentalists = A memorable concert for our deserving community audience!

Sincerely,

Robert S. Webb, Jr.
